Grumeti Air Launches Seamless Connection to Singita Serengeti

Guests will now reach Singita properties in record time

Singita has announced that its partner airline, Grumeti Air, will make it quicker, easier and safer than ever to visit the six lodges and camps within Singita Serengeti. With daily flights of just over an hour, directly from Arusha to Singita Sasakwa Lodge via Kilimanjaro, guests avoid the lengthy journey of the past that involved multiple stops along the way. The direct route will open up the best of the Serengeti, and with Lamai just a 15-minute hop away, an exclusively Singita East African itinerary is now much more attainable. Guests travelling on Grumeti Air will experience the comfort of modern cabins and friendly service, with a team of highly qualified captains and co-pilots retaining over 29 years of combined experience in Tanzania and over 30,000 flying hours. The two Cessna Caravans are also fitted with state-of-the-art safety systems operated by two pilots and real-time 'flight following', ensuring every aspect of the journey is safe and the perfect start to a Singita safari.

HOW: Rates start from USD$305 one way from Arusha and Singita Sasakwa Lodge.

Note to Editors

Singita is a conservation company that has been preserving African wilderness for the past two decades. Through an exceptional safari experience with 12 award-winning lodges and camps across South Africa, Tanzania and Zimbabwe, Singita is able to partially fund the protection and preservation of pristine land and existing wildlife populations, not to mention help create economic independence within local communities surrounding the reserves.
